

VA

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Does this look familiar? Are you wondering what a successful transition might look and feel like?

Join us on Thursday, February 21st
Atlantic Cape Community College
341 South Dennis Road, Cape May Court House where CVAC presents

GENERATIONS CONNECT

Hear from other veterans how they transitioned back into civilian life.

9:00 am Networking continental breakfast

9:30 am – 11:30 am Community Partner Sturdy Savings Bank, will present a brief overview/introduction to personal finance, with a focus on concerns specific to the veteran community. The seminar will be divided into three topics including:

- Budgeting
- Credit
- Savings Investments and Retirement Planning

11:30 am – 12 noon Lunch and Networking. Representatives from the VA will be on hand to offer free consultations.

12 noon – 2:00 pm Participate openly in a panel discussion with veterans representing military eras from Vietnam to Afghanistan/Iraq. From personal resilience to life challenges upon returning home, or separating from military service, hear experiences of other veterans and how they were able to identify and utilize local resources.

P.O. Box 491 · Ocean View, NJ 08230 · CVACcapemay@gmail.com
Contact: Carol Cohen · 732-647-5201 · Carol.Cohen@redcross.org